COVID-19 Advisory Services

Prompted by the growing number of enquiries we are receiving due to the unprecedented impact on business and general life that COVID-19 is causing, we have put together a customisable external Services package to allow access to senior lawyers who:

- understand your business and your objectives;
- are able to provide prompt, responsive advice; and
- offer specialist advice without the need to employ a General Counsel.

These services include the following.

Regulatory – navigating challenges imposed by COVID-19 to ensure ongoing regulatory and licensing compliance in the UK, Europe and globally.

Commercial contracts – reviewing important supply and customer contracts in relation to Force Majeure and termination rights; advising on notification and mitigation obligations; and drafting, amending and negotiating all forms of commercial contracts.

Policy advice – providing industry-focused policy advice, including national and EU policy advice in relation to COVID-19.

Corporate governance – advising on changes that may need to be made in relation to corporate governance due to COVID-19 such as requirements for holding board meetings remotely and executing agreements and deeds when directors are not available.

Corporate law – advising on directors’ duties in relation to continuing to trade through the COVID-19 crisis.

Finance – reviewing loan documents and supporting guarantees and security and advising on termination, repayment and renewal clauses.

Security and data management – data management and data protection guidance and any regulatory action that may be taken by the ICO.

Consultancy and strategic advice – government advocacy, business strategy advice in relation to COVID-19.

We can be on call when you need us for as long as you need us. We can work with your board on strategic one-off issues or for longer work packages.
